Dear Parents,

It is an absolute pleasure to get a chance to visit ESF Abacus, and to share my passion on creating Asian-themed children's books on May 19, 2023.

I create the Mini Love Tales book collection to amplify diverse voices, bringing stories from different cultures, backgrounds, experiences, and identities to print. I believe that through storytelling and communication, we can be part of creating an inclusive future!

If you are interested in ordering any books for your children, I would like to offer a special rate for the ESF Abacus community. Simply fill out this form and return it to their teacher with cash in a sealed envelope labeled with your child's name by the May 26, 2023. The items will be distributed and given to your child on the week of June 12, 2023.

I hope your child will enjoy reading the books as much as I enjoy creating them!

Sincerely,
Conny Wong

I Love You, Little Dumpling is a heartfelt celebration of your unconditional love for your little one. Combining charming illustrations of little dumpling characters, and a sweet gentle rhyme, we hope this book will play a part of creating some truly special memories together.

I Love You, Little Boba is a gentle rhyming book that features one of the most popular drinks in Asia. The book expresses love for your little one while celebrating culture and diversity through a famous Asian icon, Boba!

Mama's Bedtime Tales and the Wonders of Asia is a whimsical story about the joys of childhood imagination and family love set against the stunning backdrop of the many wonders of Asia. Follow along as Mama's bed magically surfs the Bali waves, adventures in Borneo Rainforest, weaves through busy Bangkok traffic, and much, much more. What incredible discoveries can you spot on this exciting journey?
